

Name: Adam King

Attended Reigate School

From: 1999

To: 2004

Career Pathway

Adam studied Web Design at the University of the West of England in Bristol. In 2012 he launched his own online marketing company which is going from strength to strength. His biggest and most rewarding achievement has been the Women in Data UK event which he has organised and helped run for the past four years.