

HOME-SCHOOL AGREEMENT

The main aim of Reigate School is:
to help students to realise their academic, personal and social potential

The following statements demonstrate those values that are expected at Reigate School. These values will be reinforced in lessons, in the Personal and Social Education programme, in school assemblies and in all extra-curricular and social activities in Reigate School.

- We will act with care and consideration, showing courtesy and respecting the rights and property of others.
- We will respect the beliefs, cultures and opinions of others.
- We will show self-discipline and accept that we have both rights and responsibilities. We will take responsibility for our actions, even if this is not to our personal advantage.
- We will help those who are less fortunate than ourselves.
- We will tell the truth and be reliable about keeping our word.
- We recognise the importance of co-operating with others.
- We recognise the importance of academic achievement.

We, at Reigate School, share your determination for your child to exploit his or her talents and potential to the full in the coming years. This can be achieved, especially if School, parents and student work closely together with each aware of its rights and responsibilities. If, from the outset, we establish a clear framework of agreed behaviour and duties, we will see the fruits in solid progress each year.

In the school prospectus and accompanying details we have set out the school's strategies and expectations. Please read the information overleaf and then sign the relevant section on the Parent/Carer Consent form.
