Lockers

Children can have a locker if they would like one.

Children are advised to use these to store belongings rather than carry everything around with them all day.

Please follow the guidance on the letter you were sent about lockers.

Reigate School

Behaviour Expectations

Positive behaviour contributes to an effective learning environment. The core principles and expectations are for students to:

- arrive on time
- wear the correct uniform
- have the appropriate equipment
- be polite and respectful to everyone
- respect the school environment

With specific regard to behaviour, the aim is to:

- strike the right balance between rewards and sanctions.
- reward consistently good behaviour and also improving behaviour.

KINDNESS RESILIENCE
FRIENDSHIP
CURIOSITY RESPECT

Extra-Curricular Clubs and Activities

We expect all Year 7 children to sign up to and attend at least one club before half term. Clubs are generally at no financial cost to you.

A list of these will be on the school website (and an example of the clubs that have run this year are on the following slide).

We will hold a “Freshers’ Fayre” event to promote clubs and teams within the year group.
